Get WIL powered

What is WIL?

❯ work-integrated learning (WIL) brings post-secondary students into the workplace
- students benefit by gaining quality work experience and a chance to apply what they've learned in a practical setting
- workplaces benefit by bringing in skilled talent eager to help you meet your business objectives
- use WIL to build your talent pipeline

❯ WIL is an academic requirement that students must complete in order to graduate

❯ nine types of WIL provide flexibility and options for different workplaces and programs

Explore WIL funding options

❯ Federal and Provincial governments are actively supporting WIL by offering funding to small and medium-sized businesses

❯ funders will work with you to optimize your submission
- visit our website to learn about current funding programs
- research funders to find a match
- visit funder websites to submit your application for funding
- recruit the WIL student with the best fit

❯ with COVID-19, funding programs are offering more flexibility and quick processing of applications

Find a WIL student

❯ consider how you want the WIL student to help
- what is the goal you hope to achieve?
- what is the type of work and work environment?
- what is the timing/duration?

❯ learn more about our 25 post-secondary institutions and their programs through our website

❯ post your opportunity through our portal for automatic distribution to the institutions you select

Grow future talent through WIL

❯ mentor WIL student entrepreneurs
❯ apprentice trades workers
❯ develop professionals through practicums and internships
❯ partner on a research project with a post-secondary institution and WIL students
❯ partner with WIL students to tackle community-based and social innovation projects

Invigorate your business with WIL

❯ WIL students can help you:
- pivot to online platforms
- research new business opportunities
- design, test and launch new products
- analyse data and field research
- create and implement marketing and communications plans
- develop recommendations and business plans
- monitor and survey ecological and wildlife environments
