

ACE-WIL BC/ YUKON: ENTREPRENEURSHIP PROGRAM BASELINE 2020

University Example A
Primary Purpose	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Support students' professional, academic, and career goals through meaningful experiential education that intentionally supports reflective practice in work-integrated opportunities wherein students mobilize knowledge between workplace and academic settings.
Primary Stakeholder(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students.
Institutional Context	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Entrepreneurship included under co-op and WIL preparatory curriculum adapted from co-op.
WIL Preparation Program/ Course	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Two student preparation courses. Workshops for application documents and interviews that are highly interactive with insights from co-op employers/ alumni. After the workshops, students attend an individualized session with an advisor to ensure readiness. Effective intercultural communication is an optional course for co-curricular recognition.
Duration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> First student preparation course duration is two weeks plus two-days online requiring ten to twelve hours to complete. Second student preparation course duration is one week plus two-days online requiring five to seven hours to complete.
Integration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In the semester before the co-op job search, students complete the preparatory curriculum the first WIL preparatory course, the workshops and then attend their individualized advising session to finalize the resume. Students complete the first student preparation course after acceptance into the program. Students register for the second student preparation course after being placed. Multiple sessions of the two online preparatory courses are offered per semester.
Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Blended, multiple modes of communication and delivery. Online learning community. Offered in a learning management system, Canvas with facilitated discussions. Advising is offered in person, on Skype, Zoom and by phone. Faculty and guests such as employer panels. Students can arrange a follow up meeting by email or phone call.
Mandatory/ Optional	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mandatory.
Educators	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Course facilitators are the co-op Coordinator and/ or co-op advisor.

College Example B

Primary Purpose	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide resources to make a positive, lasting impression on prospective employers. • Complement other curriculum offered in career programs to further develop specific competencies related to employment in student's field of study.
Primary Stakeholder(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Any undergraduate and graduate students with English requirements.
Institutional Context	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Entrepreneurship included under Centralized co-op and WIL preparatory curriculum adapted from co-op.
WIL Preparation Program/ Course	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Undergraduate student preparation course. • Three one-credit courses for post-degree diploma programs. These graduate-level WIL preparatory courses have same curriculum as the undergraduate courses except the third course is modified to include a job hub format including: spreadsheet, contacts, who students will be interviewing, and finding employment. • Midterm exam is master resume organized into groups. • Round robin application document support, career fairs, role plays, interviews in class, interviews one-on-one with grading, weekly morning mingle events with employers. • Partnerships lead events of interest, leaders of tomorrow program. • Sponsoring job shadow for a day with employers.
Duration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Undergraduate course is full term; two hours instruction twice a week for thirteen weeks for fifty-six total instructional hours. • Graduates have two hours a week for nine weeks.
Integration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Courses are in the experiential learning programs offering co-op education option. • Undergraduate student preparation course is a pre-requisite for co-op work experience.
Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Combined lecture and seminar. • Pre-Covid: offered in person through scheduled classes.
Mandatory/ Optional	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mandatory.
Educators	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Career instructors develop workshops. • Twelve teaching faculty are co-op coordinators.