COWIL NEWSLETTER

BC Co-op and Work-Integrated Learning (COWIL) Initiative

Welcome!

Dear Readers,

Welcome to the second issue of the BC Co-op and Work-Integrated Learning (COWIL) Initiative newsletter!

This quarterly bulletin aims to keep you informed on the work-integrated learning (WIL) projects currently underway as part of the COWIL Initiative across 25-post-secondary institutions in British Columbia.

In this issue, we highlight the completed Phase I COWIL projects, provide an overview of the newly approved Phase II COWIL Projects and touch on the importance of sustainability for completed projects.

We hope that you will find the newsletter useful to learn more about COWIL projects, connect with other project leaders to discuss best practices and learnings, and collaborate, where possible, to add value to the WIL practitioners' community in BC.

Thank you for your time and attention!

WIL EDI RESOURCES – ADDRESSING DISCRIMINATION AND BARRIERS TO INCLUSION

This project examines the barriers in WIL specifically faced by marginalized student groups such as international, refugee, LQBTQ2S+ students, students with disabilities, and students from low socio-economic status backgrounds. The project explores tools and resources to help WIL employers and staff effectively address student barriers around discrimination and inclusion.

BC WIL EMPLOYER/COMMUNITY PARTNER SURVEY

The BC WIL Employer and Community Partner survey collected data from WIL partners at 19 post-secondary institutions in BC between Fall 2020 and Spring 2021, to better understand the labour market's ability to engage WIL students during the pandemic and post-pandemic. The survey provides insight on WIL employer/community partner's experiences, interests and needs.

ACE-WIL Resource Hub

The Resource Hub is a part of a provincial project funded through the COWIL Initiative. It is a place to share your project outcomes and resources with the wider WIL community. After the COWIL Initiative concludes, it will serve as an infrastructure for ongoing resource sharing.

What's on the hub?

The many resources developed by ACE-WIL volunteers, members and member institutions are available on the hub for you to explore. These include research, tools, videos, professional development and more.

Why is it important to upload resources to the hub?

It is important to ensure that the outcomes of COWIL projects leave a legacy, are openly shared, and contribute to a provincial-wide WIL community of practice.
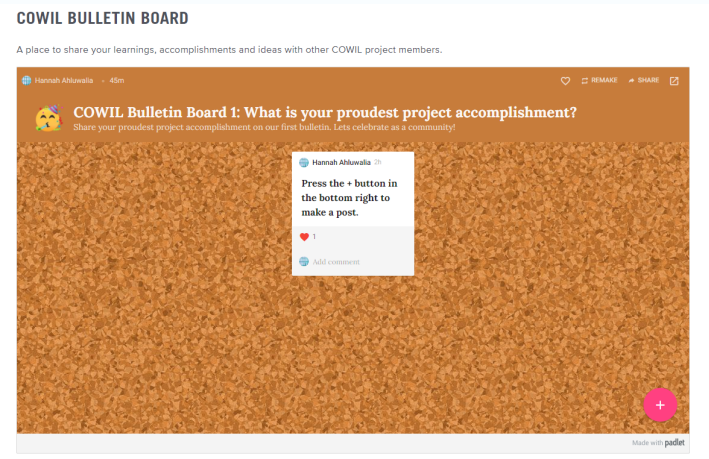

How do I submit a resource and/or project to the hub?

Email Hannah Ahluwalia, COWIL Initiative Project Manager at cowilpm@uvic.ca. for assistance uploading to the hub!
